The Official Event: SCOTUS Denies Karsjens Petition for Review.	----	Unlike past and future editions, this issue will be treated like an "extra' edition. Its coverage will be limited to the flurry of legal news about the Karsjens case, projected 'spinoffs' from it, and the Gladden case, plus the latest (very important) positive development in the Wage Case. Accordingly, it will be somewhat shorter than usual, in order not to delay its distribution. I urge you to read it closely to fully understand these latest developments. The overall news is good, and forward progress is underway. I'm sure you will find this reportage to be strong medicine to dispel the case of the 'gloomies' that you probably have been suffering from since learning of the denial of "certiorari" (review) by the U.S. Supreme Court of the infamous ruling by the Eighth Circuit in the Karsjens case. Read on and be enlightened and uplifted.	1
